About Our Fees

Freemans Law LLP is regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA). In line with the SRA Transparency Rules, we provide clear information about our pricing and services from the outset.

Our fees are based on:

- The complexity of the matter
- The urgency involved
- The level of expertise and specialist knowledge required
- The seniority and experience of the fee earner handling your case

Our charges may include:

- Professional legal fees
- VAT (where applicable)
- Disbursements

VAT is charged where applicable, depending on your immigration status.

Disbursements are payments made to third parties on your behalf and may include:

- Home Office application fees
- Immigration Health Surcharge (IHS)
- Court and tribunal fees
- Barristers' fees
- Translation and interpreter fees
- Expert report fees
- Courier fees

We will always inform you of any disbursements in advance and obtain your agreement before costs are incurred.

Please note that clients remain responsible for paying all disbursements. Freemans Law LLP cannot cover these costs on behalf of clients and cannot accept responsibility for delays caused by unpaid disbursements.

How We Charge

Fixed Fees

Fixed fees are agreed at the outset based on the information provided to us. They may be revised if:

- New information arises;
- The matter becomes significantly more complex; or
- Changes in the law affect the work required.

Any changes to agreed fees will always be discussed with you in advance.

Hourly Rates

Fee Earner	Hourly Rate
Senior Partner (8+ years PQE)	£400
Solicitor	£350

What Is Included in Our Fees

Our fees generally include:

- Assessing your circumstances and advising on the most appropriate immigration route
- Advice on Immigration Rules and eligibility requirements
- Reviewing supporting evidence
- Advising on additional documents required
- Preparing and submitting your application
- Liaising with the Home Office, tribunals, and relevant third parties
- Advising you on the outcome and next steps

Any additional work required following the submission of an application may incur further fees, which will be agreed with you in advance. Any disbursements are charged separately and are payable in addition to our fees.

Legal Aid

We also undertake Legal Aid work, subject to financial eligibility and the merits of the case. Not all immigration matters qualify for Legal Aid funding.

To discuss eligibility, please contact us on 0207 935 3522 to speak with one of our specialist advisers.
